COMES NOW the United States of America, by Assistant United States Attorney Audrey J. Renschen, and Department of Justice Trial Counsel Ravi Sinha, and responds to Jayavarman's motion to continue trial and extend motions deadlines.

The United States has received the Court's order at Docket 88 setting a hearing on the motion, and wanted to advise the Court in advance of the hearing that the defendant's motion at Docket 83 appears to have been filed in error.

The United States provided discovery of the Cambodian documents to the defense on September 30, 2014.

Government counsel spoke with Attorneys Rex Butler and George Dozier by telephone yesterday to advise them of the error, and provided information documenting the discovery provided on September 30th. The United States expects that the defense will be filing another motion today requesting additional time to file motions and to continue the December 1st trial date.

Nonetheless, in light of the Court's scheduling of the matter for tomorrow, Government counsel wanted the Court to be aware that the materials had in fact been provided to the defense on September 30th.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, October 16, 2014, in Anchorage, Alaska.
